

Machias Savings Bank welcomes new Chief Operating Officer

MACHIAS, Maine - Machias Savings Bank (MSB) is excited to announce that Ben Jordan has joined the Bank as Chief Operating Officer.

Ben Jordan has spent nearly three decades navigating technological advancements in the industry, streamlining operations, and supporting the implementation of digital banking solutions. Most recently, he worked as Chief Information Officer at Synergent, where he focused on delivering holistic support to diverse financial institutions, managing vendor ecosystem integrations, and supporting corporate infrastructure investments. He also contributes to industry advancements throughout the state as a Board Member with the Maine Technology Institute. Jordan lives in Windham.

Jordan's expertise will be critical as the Bank transitions to the Jack Henry technology modernization strategy to continue delivering high-level customer service as the bank grows.

“Ben has extensive knowledge of the Jack Henry ecosystem that will be invaluable as Machias Savings Bank moves toward modernizing, operating more efficiently into the future, and evolving to meet the needs of our customers as technology continues to advance,” said Larry Barker, President & CEO of Machias Savings Bank.

About Machias Savings Bank

With nearly $2.4 billion in assets, 300 employees, and 15 branches from Portland to Caribou, Machias Savings Bank seeks to move Maine forward and build thriving communities by helping people and businesses prosper. Founded in 1869 and a leader in customer and employee experience as well as community, Machias works to expand its impact beyond products and services through community donations, its employee volunteer program, and by personalizing each customer relationship to help Maine businesses and individuals find their “YES!” More details about Machias Savings Bank can be found online at machiassavings.bank. Member FDIC.

Media Contacts

Jill Blanch, Vice President of Marketing
Machias Savings Bank
jblanch@machiassavings.com
207.255.9328

Emily Broadbent
Fluent IMC
emily@fluentimc.com
570.510.1790